As mentioned in
our last report,
for CCI National
the year 2018
is the year of implementation.

Upcoming National Events

It's also shaping up to be the year of engagement – as the chairs of new committees are engaging with both their mandates and their members – and the year of advancement, as evidenced by the new CCI National Conference that takes place for the first time ever at the conclusion of this year's Fall National Leader's Forum hosted by the London and Area Chapter in November.

Forum events taking place from November 7th to 9th at the Delta London include great meetings as well as educational and social events. The theme of the Forum is "Taking the Lead," which represents the goals of CCI as we move into the future: to be definitive leaders in providing information, support and connections for condominium owners, directors and service providers throughout Canada. The "Taking the Lead" theme also takes on a couple of new spins in reference to the Forum's main social events: a night of big band music and dancing, and a night at the races! (Unless the quietly making CCI the awesome organization and community we have all come to enjoy.

What's new for the Forum this year is that there will no longer be a Saturday seminar, but, instead, a National Conference running from 8 a.m. to late afternoon on November 10th. This new, first-ever annual event includes exhibitors, seminars and a keynote speaker, and is focussed on the theme of "Mental Health in Your Condo Community". Special guest, Michael Lansberg (of TSN's Off the Record) will take a frank look at mental health, while other conference sessions include hoarding, best practices, and a legislative review. London is, indeed, calling. Don't miss your opportunity to be part of this landmark occasion. The night of music and dancing includes CCI National's Annual Awards Banquet, when we get to express appreciation openly for many of those who volunteer quietly making CCI the awesome organization and community we have all come to enjoy.
